

DLA Piper advises Swedish Dustin Group AB (publ) on its acquisition of ITaito Oy

Ilkka Liljeroos
Country Managing Partner

DLA Piper has advised the Swedish company Dustin Group AB (publ), one of the leading Nordic re-sellers of IT products and additional services, on its acquisition of the Finnish IT solutions company, ITaito Oy.

ITaito designs, implements and delivers heavy-duty IT solutions and expert services, and with this acquisition, Dustin Group will strengthen its position in Finland.

Dustin's core business lies within e-commerce; the company bridges the gap between manufactures and consumers, assisting the customer in finding the right solution for their needs, facilitating access to manufacturers' large selections of goods. Dustin is a one-stop-shop, offering approximately 250,000 products, along with additional services, functions and solutions.

The Helsinki-based DLA Piper team was led by Corporate partner Ilkka Liljeroos. Other key team members included Corporate associate Antti Eeva, Employment counsel Riikka Autio and Corporate associate Eero Puranen.
