Chambers & Partners' Global Practice Guide 2021 Finnish chapter includes a practice guide on Real Estate, written by DLA Piper's Real Estate and Tax teams. The First Edition of the guide is now available online.

Our real estate and tax lawyers have contributed to the recently released Chambers & Partners' Global Practice Guide 2021. We are very proud of our people who are all dedicated to take part in various domestic and international projects in addition to their daily work. All of our practice groups offer extensive know-how from their area of expertise.

DLA Piper LLP acting as Contributing Editor, the guide covers an impressive 51 jurisdictions and provides the latest legal information on the impact of disruptive technologies, sale and purchase, real estate finance, planning and zoning, investment vehicles, commercial leases, construction and tax.

The Finnish version of Real Estate practice guide can be read here.
