

DLA Piper strengthens Real Estate team in Finland

Mikko Larvala
Partner, Head of Real Estate

Timo Valkama
Counsel

DLA Piper has appointed Timo Valkama as counsel effective from 1 June 2021, strengthening the firm's growing Real Estate practice in Finland.

Timo joins DLA Piper from FIM where he worked as Head of Transactions for real estate funds and joint venture investments. In addition to investments and asset management, Timo has previously worked for law firms and major construction companies as legal counsel, giving him a good understanding on our clients' needs. Timo's skills and his view on the real estate market strengthen the firm's already extensive and diverse experience in real estate transactions, cross border investments, and real estate development and construction.

Mikko Larvala, DLA Piper's Head of Real Estate in Finland and in the Nordics, commented:

"We are delighted to welcome Timo to the firm. I am confident that he will play a valuable role in further developing our real estate offering, and that he will enhance our ability to offer exceptional client service. Timo is a great fit for our team and his appointment is well in line with the firm's strategy and plans. We expect the summer and fall to continue busy in the real estate market."
