Tuija Kaijalainen and Charlotte Brunlid at DLA Piper have contributed to an article related to the Finnish and Swedish public procurement legislation in a special edition of the Public Procurement Law Review on defense procurement in Europe in light of the war in Ukraine. The volume comprised articles by procurement experts from Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Lithuania, Poland, the Netherlands, Romania, Sweden, the UK, and the United States.

Kaijalainen and Brunlid discuss whether changes have been made to the procurement legislation in Finland and Sweden after February 2022 and what kind of trends may be seen in the defense procurement.

The article was first published by Thomson Reuters, trading as Sweet & Maxwell, 5 Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London, E14 5AQ, in Public Procurement Law Review 2023 (6) p. 382 and is reproduced by agreement with the publishers. For further details, please see the publishers' website.
